Alternatives to Alcohol as a Prize

Alcohol is often used by sporting clubs as a prize for raffles or best player awards. Whether it is a slab of beer or a bottle of spirits, using alcohol as a prize can send the wrong message to club members and as such should be discouraged.

The following is a list of options to alcohol as a prize for best players (many of these would also be appropriate for raffle prizes). These are all relatively easy to obtain and most would cost less than $25. Naturally clubs will use options they are able to obtain from organisations / people with a link to the club.

- Movie tickets / vouchers
- Dinner for one/two at local restaurant
- Taxi voucher to a certain value (to encourage safe transport)
- Pewter mug
- Trophy / Medallion
- Food voucher for canteen
- Ticket to sporting event / venue
- CD / Book voucher
- Sports Shop voucher
- Video hire voucher
- Haircut voucher
- Take Away Food voucher
- Petrol vouchers
- Car clean (inside and out)
- Hampers
- Gym passes
- Session with a personal trainer
- Club clothing or merchandise (for home team)
